The Publicity Committee shall consist of a Chair appointed by the President, the academic and community board members, and at least three additional members chosen by the chair in consultation with the President. The duties of this committee are to coordinate publicity of U Club and constituent activities including through press releases and other means. Publicity must be diverse and carried to assure that it reaches the diverse membership and potential membership.

1. Section 9. Scholarship Committee
The Scholarship Committee shall consist of a Chair appointed by the president and at least three additional members chosen by the chair in consultation with the President. The duties of this committee are to set the criteria for scholarship applicants, publicize the availability of scholarships, receive and judge applications received, determine the number and size of each year’s scholarships, select the scholarship winners, arrange the presentations of scholarships, solicit funds for scholarships through contributions, benefits, and other means, and oversee the IU Foundation management of scholarship funds.

The scholarship chair may choose not to form a committee but takes full responsibility for performing all committee’s duties. The scholarship committee works in conjunction with the Director’s Office of the Indiana Memorial Union which oversees the IU Foundation account for our scholarships. The Chair works in conjunction with the Director’s Office and the IU Foundation to solicit funds for scholarships through contributions, benefits, and other means, while the IU Foundation oversees the management of scholarship funds. The scholarship committee shall report to the board of director the funds available for scholarships. The board shall determine the number and amount of the scholarships to be awarded for the next academic year. Students apply through the university system after which appropriate applicants are forwarded to the Director’s Office for review by that office and the chair of the scholarship committee. The chair invites the winners each year for the presentation ceremony of the scholarships at the University Club.

ARTICLE IX - Fiscal Control

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The U Club’s fiscal year shall be from June 1 to May 31.

Section 2. Budget

The finance committee shall prepare a budget for the ensuing year based on estimated revenues and expenditures required to carry out programs expected to occur in the budget year and other necessary club operations. The budget shall include recommended dues and rental rates for the ensuing year. The budget is to be presented to the Board of Directors at the last meeting of the fiscal year for the Board’s approval or revision.

After the beginning of the new fiscal year, the finance committee may recommend, and the new board of Directors may make changes in the budget, provided that the revised budget honors definite commitments duly made by the previous Board of Directors. The finance committee may also recommend and the board may also direct revisions of the budget reflecting significant changes in program and operating plans with ongoing attention to maintaining the fiscal soundness of the club.

Section 3. Financial Statements

The Board of Directors shall regularly receive and review financial statements with comparison to the budget, directing corrective action if appropriate.

Section 4. Audit

The Board of Directors shall periodically arrange for an independent review of the financial records, procedures, and statements of the U Club no less than every 3 years.

Section 5. Member Information

On request, any member will be provided a copy of the annual budget, financial statements, and/or report of the independent review of the financial records.

Section 6. No Private Benefit

No U Club- resources may not benefit any member, individual, or entity except in exchange for goods and services provided to the club in accord with an arm’s length transaction approved by the Board of Directors. The Finance Committee will assure that procedures and controls are in place to enforce this provision.

ARTICLE X - Amendments

Section 1. Method of Proposing
An amendment to the Constitution and Bylaws may be proposed by the board of directors or by twenty members in good standing. Members shall be notified (see Article VII, Section 3) in writing at least two weeks prior to the meeting at which the amendment will be voted upon. The proposed amendment shall will be available in the U Club and shall will be mailed/transmitted emailed to an individual member on request. After these provisions for notification and distribution have been met, the amendments may be voted on at the U Club annual membership business meeting or at a special membership meeting called for that purpose.
