

Experience the Eskenazi Museum of Art

Monday, November 1, 2021

4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

In 2017, eight-time Academy Award-nominated and three-time Emmy and Tony-winning actress Glenn Close donated her collection of more than 800 costumes and other items to the Eskenazi School of Art, Architecture + Design. The Art of the Character exhibit includes highlights from her collection.

You will have the opportunity to tour two of the Art Galleries, the Jane Fortune Gallery of American and European Art from Medieval to 1900 and the Glenn Close Exhibit before it closes on November 15th.

The Museum will be closed to the public on the day of our visit. This is a private event specifically for University Club members and their guests. Private docents will be available during the tour to answer your questions.

Members will be able to meet the Art Museum Director, enjoy appetizers catered by One World Catering and toast the day with Champagne.

RESERVATIONS: $22 for members, $24 for non-members

Name: _____ Name: _____

Deadline for reservations: Friday, October 22nd

Please send your check payable to the University Club at 900 E. 7th Street, IMU Room 150, Bloomington, IN 47405 or call our office at 812-855-1325 to pay by credit card.

Parking information will be available soon. We will let you know when we receive permission to park by Showalter Fountain. Discounted parking at the IMU lots will be available.